ACT TODAY AND CHANGE TOMORROW

Help create a future free from coeliac disease with a gift in your Will

THE FUTURE IS IN YOUR HANDS

By leaving a gift in your Will, you can help transform the future for people with coeliac disease, creating lasting change for generations to come.

Last year alone, these special gifts provided a quarter of all our income, enabling us to support thousands of people, campaign for better healthcare and access to gluten free food, and fund groundbreaking research.

Gifts in Wills can make life better and better for people with coeliac disease, providing your charity with the long term income needed to do all this:

- be there for the thousands who seek trusted advice and reassurance
- speak up for better labelling, prescriptions, and faster diagnosis
- partner with brands and restaurants to make eating gluten free truly safe
- fund vital research that brings us closer to a world without coeliac disease.

ACT TODAY AND CHANGE TOMORROW

Today, Coeliac UK is the leading charity funder of research into coeliac disease in the UK. Since 2005, we have committed around £3.5 million for research projects aimed at finding the answers we need, so that one day no one's life will be limited by coeliac disease.

Your gift could fund research that ultimately paves the way for a potential cure. Research will help us understand more about coeliac disease, including the genetic basis and immune processes involved.

And donations from gifts in Wills could also help fund research into more effective diagnostic testing and improved ongoing healthcare, reducing the impact on people's lives.

After you've provided for your loved ones and friends, any gift – no matter how big or small – will do so much to help create a future free of coeliac disease.

“

Advice from Coeliac UK helped me make sense of everything and gave me much-needed reassurance and hope.

SIOBHAN'S STORY

Siobhan recently included a gift in her Will to Coeliac UK to help find more answers for future generations...

“I finally found out I had coeliac disease at the age of 49, after years of unexplained illness and the heartbreak of infertility.

“At a time when I was feeling overwhelmed, the charity was a real lifeline. Their advice helped me make sense of everything and gave me much needed reassurance and hope.

“Even now, it's still the first place I turn whenever I need support or guidance. I'm so grateful for everything they do, especially the charity's fight to retain our gluten free prescriptions — which have meant so much to people like me. Seeing some areas of the country withdraw these prescriptions is deeply upsetting.

“Leaving a gift in my Will was my way of saying thank you, and of helping make sure others can find answers, support, and hope in the years ahead.”

Siobhan, West Sussex
