

Northumbrian Fine Foods and Brunel University London are organising a sensory panel & focus group for Members of Coeliac UK. The event is a part of a larger project that is supported by Innovate, UK.

The event will be held in the premises of Northumbrian Fine Foods in Dukesway, Team Valley, Gateshead
NE11 0QP

Saturday, 4 June, 10 am

You will be asked to taste three gluten-free and milk free products and assess their quality according to your preference. You will also be involved in a focus group and be asked to evaluate and compare a few products from the competitors.

Goody bags containing gluten-free products will be provided for everyone!

For more information or to register your interest in taking part please contact Chantelle or Valentina at chantelle.barnard@northumbrianfinefoods.co.uk and valentina.stojceska@brunel.ac.uk. You can also call Chantelle on 0191 442 4414 or Lucy on 0191 442 4424 between 8am and 4pm.

Light refreshments and sandwiches will be provided.
