

Thank you to everyone who attended the Groups Annual Picnic at Bantock House, Wolverhampton to help celebrate not only Coeliac UK's 50th anniversary but also our Groups 50th too.

A group of sixteen members and partners of the Wolverhampton Coeliac Group attended the increasing popular Annual Picnic at Bantock House, where we always meet up, bring and share the home made foods and the goodies that were bought, and on this occasion, the gluten free goodies that had been kindly donated by Dr Shar and we were all surprised by the glorious sunshine despite the gloomy weather that had been forecast and all had a wonderful afternoon.

It was such a pleasant relaxing atmosphere socialising, and there was so much food brought along for us to try, including the home made savories cooked by Keith Jellyman, the delightful cake made by Mrs Jenkins, (the hard working and talented wife of our Group Organiser, Ian Jenkins,) four large bags of crisps, a bag of cheesy nachos, the wonderful bread that Ian brought back from France, as well as the cheeses that he provided, crackers and snacks donated by Dr Shar, all followed by the sweet goodies such as the rice cakes with fresh banana and yoghurt provided by Bal and Sukesh, the very popular home made flapjacks, tea cakes, Coffee and Walnut Slices, chocolate fingers and so much more that I can't remember, and we all ate heartily and left with full tummies and smiling faces.

I would like to thank you to everyone who attended the Groups Annual Picnic at Bantock House, Wolverhampton to help celebrate not only Coeliac UK's 50th anniversary but also our Groups 50th too, especially to Ian Jenkins for his hard work and efforts in putting so much effort into making sure that the day was a success.

May I just give a quick reminder to everyone that the meal at Bella Italia is to take place at 6.30 on Tuesday 12th June, and for those of you who wish to attend, please notify Bal and Sukesh, or let me know and I will either call or e-mail them on your behalf.

Furthermore, the afternoon tea in Albrighton will be held on Sunday 8th July at 2.30. Please let Ian Jenkins know if you wish to attend or if you require more details.
