Coeliac UK AGM & Food Festival

At the end of June, a couple of the committee attended the Coeliac Annual General Meeting in Reading. This was held within a gluten free food festival. Before the 'business' part of the day we went around the food stalls, which were very informative, and we came across several products we'd not come across before! We then enjoyed a delicious gf fish and chip lunch and a cookery demonstration before attending the AGM.

Before we left for the day we were treated to an afternoon tea that had been organised for Coeliac UK volunteers to celebrate 50 years. This was a lovely opportunity to talk to other volunteers from around the country.

During the celebratory tea Jacqui (Croydon Groups, Group Organiser) was presented with a personalised cake stand in recognition of her outstanding support and contribution to the charity.

All in all a very interesting and enjoyable day!
