

Job description

Executive Assistant to the Board of AOECS

- Reports to: Board Directors of AOECS
- Location: Due to the nature of this role location will be flexible but ideally the postholder would be able to work one day a week from one of our member societies' offices, preferably from Coeliac UK's offices in High Wycombe, UK. However, for the right individual, we would be prepared to consider appropriate alternative arrangements as the role can be fully performed on a remote working basis.
- Hours: 20hrs per week
- Salary: Depending on experience, +/-€20,000 per annum.
- Type of contract: Consultancy contract
- The role: A supporting role to the Directors of AOECS providing an efficient, confidential, organising and liaison function. Assisting in organising, planning and implementing the Directors' workload to ensure the organisation runs smoothly and effectively. Acting as liaison point with key stakeholders and AOECS Member societies on behalf of the AOECS Board, working with minimal supervision.

The Association of European Coeliac Societies (AOECS)

Founded in 1988, the Association of European Coeliac Societies (AOECS) is an independent, non-profit organisation. It is the umbrella organisation of European national coeliac societies with currently 36 enrolled Member societies across Europe and internationally. AOECS represents people who are affected by coeliac disease or dermatitis herpetiformis (DH) and seeks to collaborate with international coeliac organisations worldwide. The Association is actively involved in several international initiatives to raise awareness of coeliac disease, to promote research into the diagnosis and management of this illness.

KEY RESPONSIBILITIES

Administrative

- Act as first point of call for Association and screen Board's incoming emails and post
- Drafting papers and annual reports
- Respond to enquiries
- Website administration to include setting up user accounts, creating News and Events items, uploading files to the Depository section, adding/removing Members, maintaining Home page
- Maintaining an up-to-date database of Member society contacts and their member numbers for BMF calculation
- Co-ordinating Board members' travel arrangements
- Recruiting staff
- Supporting external consultants
- Liaising with IT support to ensure uninterrupted website and email service
- Maintaining and organizing electronic and hard copy filing
- Keeping computer security software updated

Finance administration

- Bookkeeping: cash account entries

Job description

Executive Assistant to the Board of AOECS

- Preparing monthly payments and ensuring timely payments of all outstanding invoices for AOECS
- Processing expense claims
- Producing invoices for annual Membership fees and ELS fees
- Credit control
- Regularly checking AOECS bank accounts and drawing statements
- Liaising with Belgian bookkeeper and auditors for VAT returns and end of year accounts
- Creating draft budgets for Treasurer
- Creating comparison of actual vs. budget costs for each Board meeting
- Ensuring AOECS is compliant with all legal duties relating to its charitable registration in Belgium

Meetings

- Forward planning of meeting co-ordination and logistics
- Compiling meeting papers
- Setting up conference calls across multiple countries and time zones
- Taking minutes
- Following up on action points from preceding meeting
- Liaising with AOECS Working Groups to set up meetings and conference calls as required

General Assembly (GA)

- Liaising with hosting society to monitor accuracy of dedicated GA website content
- Communicating GA registration details to All Members in timely manner
- Monitoring participant list
- Administering sponsorship requests for GA participation including setting up payments
- Producing first draft of the Board Directors' report
- Sending the Board Directors' Report to All Members 4 weeks prior to the GA.
- Prepare GA materials according to the GA checklist
- Take minutes and prepare first draft
- Follow up of actions agreed at the GA

Promotional activities

- Promote activities around International Coeliac Day on 16 May using website and networks
- Issue quarterly newsletter
- Design and printing of promotional materials
- Researching and networking with coeliac organisations outside Europe

International exhibitions

- Preparation and transportation of promotional materials
- Liaising with organisers
- Organising joint international exhibitions
- Event promotion using website and other free resources

Project management

Job description

Executive Assistant to the Board of AOECS

Project manage small scale projects, such as roll out of a new website, that may arise from time to time

And any other duties commensurate with the accountabilities of the post.

PERSON SPECIFICATION

Qualification & Training

Educated to degree level standard or equivalent in Business or Management is desirable.

Experience

5 years previous experience in a similar role;

Skills

- Excellent knowledge of MS Office Suite, including Word, Excel & PowerPoint.
- Outstanding English language skills, French and German language skills are an advantage
- Strong organisational and communication skills
- Good interpersonal skills with an approachable personality

Ability

- to multitask
- to be proactive
- to work under minimal supervision
- to be discrete and have a good understanding of issues around confidentiality
- to work under pressure and be adaptable to last minute changes
- to pay high attention to detail
- to work in a flexible manner – out of hours as required.
- to appropriately represent the company externally with key stakeholders

TO APPLY:

- Email CV and covering letter to info@aoecs.org
- Closing date: 31st October
- Interviews are likely to be held on Wednesday 7 November

Thank you for your interest in this role. Due to the high volume of applicants expected for the position, we regret that we may not be able to contact all unsuccessful applicants and only shortlisted candidates will be contacted.