Prescribable products list July 2020

This is the list of products that are available on prescription in Wales, Scotland and Northern Ireland.

In England, from December 2018 gluten free bread loaves, rolls and flour mixes are the only foods available on prescription. In addition, local clinical commissioning groups (CCGs) in England can introduce further restrictions. To find out the policy in your area, visit our website (www.coeliac.org.uk/prescribingmap), ring our helpline or speak with your GP.

Products marked with an asterisk * are available in Northern Ireland, Scotland and Wales but are not available on prescription in England.

Some of the products contain gluten free wheat starch, a specially produced ingredient which is gluten free and therefore safe for people with coeliac disease. We highlight products with gluten free wheat starch with a blue triangle ▲ and products containing oats with a †. We highlight products using our Crossed Grain symbol with a
